if we are able to let go, and be non-judgmental about the negative feelings towards doing the dishes, practicing mindfulness may change our perceptions about this activity.

I am suffering from ethamodial polyp (with complete loss of smell and taste and partly blocked nose and breathlessness while sleeping) from last 15 years.

Above all other places, Reagan wrote, America "gives us the freedom to reach out and make our dreams..."