preferred drug from a doctor, which in some cases is true, but with tougher laws and policies being released, the sector is increasingly strict. Last year, they completely rallied for the cause and helped put together a kids' soccer clinic to benefit the community. Snappy medicines are commonly misspent.